Topic selection process

~~Teaching English~~

Speaking difficulties

Speaking difficulties encountered by students

The more specific topic will make you:

---

- Focused:
  - ▣ you will work for specific subject matters
  - ▣ You will get it easier to search theoretical and methodological literature
- Easier to get and manipulate the data later on

Good topic

Part one: introduction

- Here, you have to tell why the topic is interesting, why is it important?
- Your reason should be based on the research reports or findings. Statistical data are good, too.
- In this part, you have to show NOT to tell your argument
- Finally, you tell what your research objectives/problems/questions in this part.

Assignment:

- Go to your edmodo 😊

😊 Good Luck 😊
